Drive-In Theatre Opening Saturday

Bay St. Louis now has a new development, the new Hi Way Drive-In Theatre, located on Highway 90, opposite the Service Station, will have its opening this Saturday evening with a good program.

This 600 car family drive-in theatre is one of the largest and finest of its kind in the country and features every thing of the latest for the convenience of its patrons. The smallest baby in the family or the pet dog may be taken along without annoying anyone else in the audience, and you don't have to dress up just to take in a show for the evening.

The tower where the screen is located measures 62 feet by 63 feet, and is one of the largest and finest motion picture screens in the state of Mississippi and will naturally provide perfect vision.

Mr. Norman Benigno, and his associates who have invested in the neighborhood of $100,000 in this venture are to be congratulated for their foresight and courage and their unlimited confidence in the future of Hancock County.

Another thing worthy of comment is the fact that wherever possible local labor was employed and material bought from local firms, so that much of the investment was spent here at home.

WAVELAND WANDERINGS

By Mrs. George Hall

Highlighting the news this week was the marriage of Miss Martha Julia Souldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Turner Souldine, and Mr. Frank LaRocca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaRocca, Sr., of Biloxi, Miss. The wedding, claiming much interest locally, was celebrated on Sunday, May 7, at St. Claire's Catholic Church. Rev. M. J. Castello officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long tight sleeves and a yoke of appliqued lace. The skirt was very full and fell into a graceful train. She wore a short veil of illusion and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Souldine's maid of honor was Miss Ayris Pizzore of New Orleans. Bridesmaids were Ethel Lee Lott, Shirley Turcotte, Gertrude Johnson, Catherine Toomey, Beverly Bourgeois, and Audrey Bourgeois. They all wore lovely dresses of pastel organdy and carried cascade bouquets of gladioli. Flower girls were pretty little Aggie Bourgeois, who wore a pale pink organdy dress and Mary Alice Kingston, who wore an aqua net dress. They carried old fashioned bouquets of corn flowers centered with a gardenia.

William Souldine, brother of the bride was best man. The groomsmen were Messrs. Edward Cooks, Anthony Bourgeois, Pat Toomey, Jack Toomey, John Callahan of New Orleans, and Lou Caliph of Biloxi. The ring bearer was Tommy Ray Bourgeois.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The large bride's table was covered with a lace cloth with flowers and fern around the four tiered wedding cake. White lilies, carnations and gardenias were arranged throughout the house. The church, too, was beautifully decorated with white Easter lilies and palms.

Good luck and happiness to this attractive young couple.

Misses Cecile and Mary Margaret Turcotte will present their classes in a play entitled "Peter Rabbit Helps" and Miss Margaret Zimmerman will present her students in a play called "School's Out In Tater Hollow."

Everyone is urged to attend the May Festival which is always one of the prettiest affairs sponsored by the school.

Camp Salmen, Boy Scout Training Site Will Open June 18 for 6-Week Period

Camp Salmen, the official training camp of the New Orleans Area Council of Boy Scouts of America located near Slidell, La., will open its summer season on June 18 for a six week period. This was announced by Mr. Jeff Collins, chairman of the Council Camp and Activities Committee.

Under the leadership of the Camp Committee substantial progress has been made in the development of troop sites which will greatly increase the effectiveness of the Scout's experience at Camp Salmen, said Mr. Collins. He further reported that eight thousand dollars has been spent in making essential improvements to the camp this year and many of services were given by volunteer leaders to assist in the completion of the improvements.

The Council improved its record in the past year in providing Scouts of the New Orleans area with a vigorous camping program, 640 Scouts having had the benefits of a week or more of camping at Camp Salmen. The summer camp is but one phase of the use of the camp, Mr. Collins stated. In addition to the long term camping, 151 troops made effective use of the camp with 2,340 Scouts enjoying short term and its facilities throughout the year camping experiences under their own Scoutmaster leadership.

The summer season of 1950 should be the best in the history of Camp Salmen, said Mr. Collins, with an anticipated increase of twenty-five percent in Scout attendance, due in part to the recent age change which now permits a boy to join a troop at the age of eleven and also to the improved program and facilities.

"Camping is Scouting in its most natural atmosphere and our goal is to give every Scout in the New Orleans area an opportunity to hike, to swim and to do all the things which boys enjoy under the leadership of

Postmasters End Gulfport Session Officers Elected

A postmistress was elected president of the Mississippi Branch of the National League of District Postmasters, which ended its two-day convention last Saturday at the Markham Hotel Gulfport. She is Miss Roy S. Barber, Lake Cormorant, DeSoto County. She succeeds Lloyd C. Hopkins, Walnut, who served for two years.

The new officers also include John A. Nicholson, retired postmaster at Fruitland Park, who began his twelfth term as secretary-treasurer, and seven vice presidents: Mrs. Lucille C. Cox, Smithville, R. Brady, Canaan, Albert Sorrells, Lamont, S. H. Childers, Saratoga, Mrs. Irma E. Blanks, Collinsville, Mrs. Minnie Dubuison, Long Beach, and Mrs. Sereno J. Heidel, Carlisle.

The new board of directors includes Lloyd C. Hopkins, Walnut, R. V. Lindley, Mossley, and Abner W. Flury, Perkinson.

Among resolutions adopted at the Saturday morning session was a resolution limiting the convention gatherings to a biennial schedule observed since the establishment of the Mississippi Branch about 1916.

A resolution of thanks to the citizens of Gulfport who participated in the convention activities was adopted unanimously by the board. Gulfport also received a vote of approval as a vacation center, as many members expressed their enjoyment of the convention.

Nicholson reported that the Gulfport convention was one of the most and friendliest gatherings the Mississippi Branch has conducted.

Delegates to the National League convention in Denver, Colo., in October will be A. W. Flury, Perkinson, and President Barber. Lake. Corran and alternates are Mrs. Dubuison, Long Beach, and Mrs. Ethel B. Conroy, Scott.

ARMS-SPENDING

Compared to the twenty per cent of national income that the Soviet Union spends on arms, the United States spends six cents of each national income dollar. This amount will probably increase, but will not likely exceed ten per cent of the national income which should not be confused with government spending. The government spends one of every three dollars for defense.

In addition to marble furnished for monuments and public buildings, the company operates a metal-stamping plant where all Mississippi automobile license plates have been made for the past 17 years.

The reason many diseases and bodily imbalances go on for years without relief or cure is due to the approach used in coping with the condition.

The underlying and basic cause for disease is usually obscure and removed from the symptoms or even the organ affected in the disease. If you have a health problem which seems to resist every effort made to correct it, it would be wise to consult your Chiropractor for usually he is able to locate and remove these hidden causes of disease. The result being a return to normal function and health.

five members of the House and one of its Senators. Pepper had opposed the two House incumbents with opposition. Bennett and Rogers were rejected by a substantial vote. But it was the Senatorial election upon which national interest was focused, and now, after Congressman Smith's resounding defeat of the veteran Senator Pepper a great deal is being said and written by the public in explanation of that thumping defeat of the so-called Progressive Pepper. While everyone is entitled to his own views, we are of the opinion that there was a combination of circumstances and that no single factor was controlling. Probably the most substantial contributing factor to the Senator's defeat was the fact that throughout his record in the Congress for the past 14 years, he had achieved a reputation as a Liberal. He designated himself as a Liberal, his enemies dubbed him a Red. We think the truth is that Claude Pepper is an exceptionally able man. We think that had he been content to remain a Senator from Florida, he could have done so almost as long as he desired. But he was also overly ambitious. He realized that, as a Southern Democrat, he could never achieve political fame as a Presidential or even vice-presidential nominee of the Party so long as he voted and advocated the "Southern Way." Therefore, to achieve his goal, he aligned himself with every so-called Liberal and Progressive group in this country. He became one of the chief spokesmen for all minority groups. He even refused to go along with his Southern colleagues in filibusters against FEPC and other civil rights proposals. Thus, he became the beneficiary of the plaudits of the Society for the Advancement of Colored People, The Daily Worker, the labor organizations, and, in fact, practically every racial and minority group in the country. But when the vote-counting time came, the Senator found that an aroused, unorganized mass of his constituents was more powerful at the polls than all of the combined efforts of the minority groups. Claude Pepper, like the dog in Aesop's fable, dropped the Senatorial bone in the stream in an effort to grab the reflected image of what he thought was a Presidential bone.

NO INDEED, pennies aren't chicken feed these days—not when you spend them for electricity! Because the pennies that buy your electric service are just about the hardest working coins in your family budget.

For instance, a little, lowly penny will do any one of these things for you:

- Vacuum 6 large rugs
- Tell you the correct time for a week
- Light a 100-watt bulb more than 3 hours
- Toast 35 slices of bread
- Wash half your family laundry this week
- Run your radio for an entire evening

What else in your family budget does so much to make life easy, healthful, comfortable—for so little cost?

25 Years Of Building For Mississippi

HEY BOYS! LOOK!

Members of the B. N. Conservation School committee of the Mississippi Forestry and Game Association are walking carefully, with a feather eye toward the State Board of Health. They remember all too well how their plans for the 1949 summer camps were cancelled by the outbreak of polio that occurred in the state last summer.

Medical authorities have made no statement as to the probability of an outbreak of the devastating disease this summer and the association is planning to hold two boys' conservation schools.

The first one for Delta county boys will be held at Leroy Perry State Park near Hollandale from June 19-24 while the second will be held at Roosevelt State Park near Morton.

Counties which will have boys at the Delta camp are Tunica, Coahoma, Quitman, Bolivar, Sunflower, Washington, Humphreys, Leflore, Sharkey, Issaquena, Warren, Tallahatchie, Holmes, Yazoo, and Carroll.

The remainder of the counties of the state will have representation of as many as four boys each at the Roosevelt State Park Conservation School. Boys will be selected by a committee composed of a local conservation teacher, the county game warden, state forestry employee and the county agent.

A state 4-H Conservation Camp will be held at Roosevelt State Park from June 12-16. Boys chosen to represent the counties at the 4-H camps will be regularly enrolled members of the 4-H Clubs who are fourteen years of age and over and are conducting one of the conservation projects in soil conservation, land-use, forestry, pasture or wild life management.

HOSPITALITY MONTH PLAN CALLS FOR 'HOST' SCHOOLS

Preliminary plans are being made for the second annual observance of "Hospitality Month" throughout Mississippi during June this year with emphasis to be placed on holding of "Travel Host Schools" in various Mississippi communities.

The Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board, which originated and sponsored the state's first observance of this kind—a program to emphasize the tourist's importance to the state, will spearhead this summer's observance, which will be climaxed with a "Miss Hospitality" contest early in July.

A total of 28 communities throughout the state participated in last year's "Hospitality Month" observance held during the month of May. The A. & I. Board will attempt this year to secure an even greater interest from the many cities and towns throughout the state which are benefiting directly from tourist and vacation business.

The Board plans to seek the aid of community organizations formed last year, various state agencies, transportation and oil companies, hotels, restaurants and other industries, all of which either directly or indirectly by the tourist.

Material covering the organization and conducting of Travel Host Schools already has been gathered by the A. & I. Board and will be made available for community and industry use prior to this year's "Hospitality Month" observance.

The National Association of Travel Officials, has been used in numerous other communities throughout the nation and this organization points out that "wherever real thought and energy were put behind the development of a Travel Host School the activity has been of benefit to the community and an outstanding success."

The A. & I. Board, which is officially responsible for the development of tourism in the state, estimates that Mississippi's travel volume since last June has been the greatest in history. Inquiries received by the travel department have jumped to an all-time high, and Gulf Coast official sources report a 25 per cent increase in winter tourist business for a new record.

Thus the tourist's importance from both an economic and public relations standpoint, cannot be overlooked by Mississippians of all walks of life, in the opinion of the Board.

The tourist's importance to the state economically is readily seen in estimates of the dollar volume of this industry. For instance, personal expenditures for travel, vacations and related industries in the nation were expected to reach the staggering total of approximately $40 billion in the first three years of 1948 through 1950.

During the past five years the publicity, photographs, posters, travel show displays, literature, tours for writers and various other means to attract tourists to the state, with apparent success.

The objective of the Board's proposed Travel Host School program in June is to educate Mississippians in the art of delivering courteous attention, accurate information, good food and clean accommodations at prices which will be considered fair and competitive with those which are in effect elsewhere.

The Travel Host School, the Board points out, will prepare
